

	Pato, A.C. / Marques, M. T., Fundamentals of VAT, CreateSpace Publishing, current ed. FHWS - Papers, Cases, Slides
--	---

2.15 Module 15: Business Language

Module no. or code	15
Module name	Business Language
The module's classes	Second language Second language
Module content	Students underline their international preferences by learning a second language. Students start on a basic level i.e. A1 and develop language skills-
Module's learning outcomes	Level	The students ...
	Reproduction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>recognise the necessity of language as a main factor to understand culture</li> <li>are able to structure and present their ideas by talking and writing</li> <li>apply their language skills in day-to-day (business) situations</li> </ul>
	Knowledge and Comprehension	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>implement essential communication skills, such as taking part in social situations</li> <li>structure and present their ideas verbally and in writing</li> </ul>
	Problem Solving	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>speak confidently while using the language</li> </ul>
Semester	3
Duration of Module	1 Semester
Frequency	Every Year
ECTS-Credits	6
Workload	Workload (Total)	Attendance time	Self-study	exam preparation
	180 h	45 h	90 h	45 h

Module Descriptions

Type of Module	Mandatory
Applicability of module	The Module is offering the possibility to broaden the intercultural horizon and to specialise in a specific area of the world.  Only within the Bachelor International Management
Conditions for participation	German C1
Responsible for module	Claudia Lopes Victorio
Lecturer	Claudia Lopes Victorio
Language of instruction	German or any other language
Type of examination	other examined assignment (soP):, Presentation (B), Colloquium (D); decision and announcement at the beginning of the semester
Weight	3.8%
Teaching and learning formats of the module	Seminar
Particularities	Free choice of any business language except English. Students with a German Level of B2 or lower have to study German Language
Literature	FHWS - Papers, Cases, Slides